

The European Review – is now ONLINE and free for members

From January 2012 (Volume 20 issue1) All members of the Academia are entitled to access the online version of the journal, free of charge.

Members who want to continue to receive hard copies by post must now pay for a paper subscription direct to CUP. Please either do this via the CUP journal page (after log in), or use the form in this directory, or download the form from the AE website (www.acadeuro.org) publications tab page. It is only 20 pounds sterling per year (for four issues)

-----

How to access the full journal and the archive issues:

First register to enable 'log in' to the members only page on the AE Corporate website (www.acadeuro.org)

Follow the steps on how to register to access the member only pages via this link: http://www.acadeuro.org/fileadmin/user\_upload/files\_prev\_site/memb\_download/How\_to\_register\_to\_access\_the\_members\_only\_page.ppt (powerpoint file)

Then you can log in to the 'members only' page. From there you simply click on the link to the journal at it takes you to the full current issue and gives access to the full archives. You can also set up email alerts so that you receive email contents information as soon as the issues are published online.

This is what the AE members only page looks like:

Click on the image of the journal to access the full version

This is what you will see on the C.U.P site

